"Man and Woman"

God's BLESSING over ALL CREATION on 6th Day

God saw all that he had made, and it was very good. And there was evening, and there was morning--the sixth day. Genesis 1.31

2. God our Provider: He Meets our Needs

ALONE > Man/Male ALONE is NOT ENOUGH God makes COMMUNITY

a. Creation of Eve Further Explanation of Brief Account

God created man in his own image, in the image of God he created him; male and female he created them. Genesis 1.27

NT draws much of its teaching on Male/Female from this Section of Bible

1) From man v. 22 Then the LORD God made a woman from the rib he had taken out of the man, and he brought her to the man.

FROM Man = PERFECT COMPANIONSHIP / WOMAN FITS MAN'S NEED

The woman was made of a rib out of the side of Adam; not made out of his head to rule over him, nor out of his feet to be trampled upon by him, but out of his side to be equal with him, under his arm to be protected, and near his heart to be loved.

Matthew Henry

2) For man v. 18 The LORD God said, "It is not good for the man to be alone. I will make a helper suitable for him."

EQUALITY OF MAN AND WOMAN

- 1) Created in image of God
- 2) Morally Responsible to Obey God's Commands
- 3) Both guilty of disobeying God's command
- 4) Alike object of grace and mercy in Jesus Christ

There is neither Jew nor Greek, slave nor free, male nor female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus.

b. Complement vs. 23,24 The man said, "This is now bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh; she shall be called `woman,' for she was taken out of man." For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife, and they will become one flesh.

1) Social v. 18 "It is not good for the man to be alone" SAD & LONELY WORD
NO EVE > SAD and LONELY WORLD > ALL PEOPLE come from HER

Adam named his wife Eve, because she would become the mother of all the living.
Genesis 3.20

HELL will be ALONE > DARK, LONELY, ISOLATED from All Good > God
...With such violence the great city of Babylon will be thrown down, never to be found again. The music of harpists and musicians, flute players and trumpeters, will never be heard in you again. The voice of bridegroom and bride will never be heard in you again.

MARRIAGE: ACCEPTANCE OF ONE ANOTHER DESPITE IMPERFECTIONS

JAMES BOICE "We see the principle on a humorous level when the young man and woman are just getting to know one another. When they go out on their first date each is very much concerned with making a good impression. She washes her hair, applies her make - up, brushes her dress, then tries to appear as beautiful, sophisticated and charming as possible. For his part, the young man combs his hair and tries to be as "cool" as Fonzi...this first date goes well. The young man and woman each go to their homes and begin to think about their next date. Each has this problem. He asks himself, "What is going to happen when she finds out that I am not quite as cool as I pictured myself tonight?" She asks, "What will he think of me if he learns that I am not really sophisticated, or even consistently charming?"

Then they begin, ever so slowly, to reveal their true selves. On the second date he will say something like this: "You know, you probably think of me as a pretty cool person, and it's true, I am. But I wasn't always this way. About ten years ago, when I was just a kid in grade school, I was a little bit awkward. And (can you believe it?) I was even ill at ease with girls." Then he stops. He does not confess anything else. Because he is waiting for her to say, "That's funny. When I was a kid in high school I wasn't very sophisticated either. I even wore braces, and I was afraid to go out with boys." He is waiting for that because he knows that if she makes a confession to match his, then she has accepted him insofar as he has revealed himself, he can open up some more.

On their next date the fellow and the girl may confess what they were like as recently as five years ago, on the following date they get closer to "now." Perhaps, if the relationship goes very well, they may really let their hair down and share what are almost their innermost thoughts. It is a beautiful thing. Still, even in the best of relationships, even in the best of marriages, there is much of inner feelings and past deeds that is never revealed to the other person. Isn't that a shame?

Even in the best of relationships we cannot fully be ourselves. Yet Adam and Eve knew none of this. They were perfectly open and unashamed with each other. They had no sin. There was nothing in either one to hide. James Boice

3. God our Lord: We Need Him Today

a. Societal not Private

It is actually reported that there is sexual immorality among you, and of a kind that does not occur even among pagans: A man has his father's wife. And you are proud! Shouldn't you rather have been filled with grief and have put out of your fellowship the man who did this? Even though I am not physically present, I am with you in spirit. And I have already passed judgment on the one who did this, just as if I were present. 1 Corinthians 5.1-3

Then I looked, and there before me was the Lamb, standing on Mount Zion, and with him 144,000 who had his name and his Father's name written on their foreheads...And they sang a new song before the throne...These are those who did not defile themselves with women, for they kept themselves pure. They follow the Lamb wherever he goes. They were purchased from among men and offered as firstfruits to God and the Lamb. No lie was found in their mouths; they are blameless. Revelation 14.1-5

Christians are the key to the recovery of marriage...only they have a gospel adequate to do what needs to be done...the innate selfishness of the human heart must be broken. It is a poisonous weed that must be attacked at the root and struck down...It happens supernaturally and then only through the surrender of self to God in salvation.

James Boice

c. Life not Death

Do you not know that he who unites himself with a prostitute is one with her in body? For it is said, "The two will become one flesh." But he who unites himself with the Lord is one with him in spirit. Flee from sexual immorality. All other sins a man commits are outside his body, but he who sins sexually sins against his own body. Do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit, who is in you, whom you have received from God? You are not your own; you were bought at a price. Therefore honor God with your body.

Genesis 2

18. The LORD God said, "It is not good for the man to be alone. I will make a helper suitable for him."

19. Now the LORD God had formed out of the ground all the beasts of the field and all the birds of the air. He brought them to the man to see what he would name them; and whatever the man called each living creature, that was its name.

20. So the man gave names to all the livestock, the birds of the air and all the beasts of the field. But for Adam no suitable helper was found.

21. So the LORD God caused the man to fall into a deep sleep; and while he was sleeping, he took one of the man's ribs and closed up the place with flesh.

22. Then the LORD God made a woman from the rib he had taken out of the man, and he brought her to the man.

23. The man said, "This is now bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh; she shall be called 'woman,' for she was taken out of man."

24. For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife, and they will become one flesh.

25. The man and his wife were both naked, and they felt no shame.
