

1. Regarding our Message

- a. My normal method for determining what topic/text to preach on Sundays is
- b. My favorite themes for preaching are
- c. The Bible book(s) I have preached most often are
- d. The part of the Bible I have preached the least is
- e. The issue(s) that determines my choices for topic/text is
- f. I have/have not preached through an entire book of the Bible
- g. The influence of systematic theology and doctrine on my preaching is
- h. What role does the outline of the message play in your sermon preparation?

2. Regarding our People

- a. The kind of people that respond best to my preaching are
- b. The group that is hardest for me to preach to are
- c. The average length of my sermons is
- d. The challenges I face with language(s) in preaching are
- e. If your service has more than one sermon preached, how does that work? Are the topics/texts planned in advance by the preachers? Do the members leave the service with a clear understanding of what God wants them to do?
- f. Have you had time for questions and answers following your sermon? How does that work?
- g. Do you present printed outlines or notes to your people before preaching?
- h. What issues from the traditional culture(s) of Kazakhstan help or hinder your preaching?
- i. What issues from the imported Western culture(s) into Kazakhstan help or hinder your preaching?
- j. What evidences can you see in your church of the results of your preaching?
- k. What could be done by you to improve those results?

3. Regarding Ourselves

- a. The training that I have had for my preaching is
- b. The models/leaders who have most influenced my preaching are
- c. The courses that I have taken about preaching are
- d. The books that I am reading/have read which most improved my preaching are
- e. I could be a better preacher if I could study more about
- f. The amount of time I devote each week (on average) to sermon preparation is
- g. The part of preaching that I enjoy the most is
- h. The part of preaching that I enjoy the least is
- i. I have found the best way to grab people's attention as I begin the sermon is
- j. I have found the way to keep the people's attention as I preach the sermon is
- k. I have found the best way to conclude my sermon is
- l. In this coming year, I will do this to improve my preaching